Description

This route connects the historic centre of Icod de los Vinos with San Marcos Beach, following a route that combines heritage, history and agricultural traditions. Along the way, you will discover places of great interest such as Plaza de la Pila (Plaza de la Constitución), the Chapel of Nuestra Señora de las Angustias, the Chapel of Nuestra Señora del Tránsito and historic estates such as Hacienda Alzola.

The route gradually descends along old traditional paths, passing through agricultural landscapes where banana plantations are a prominent feature, with magnificent views of Mount Teide and the Atlantic Ocean. The route ends at San Marcos Beach, a beautiful coastal spot with crystal-clear waters.

Equipment:

- Use appropriate equipment, footwear and clothing according to the route and weather conditions. For routes with greater difficulty or steep slopes, trekking poles are recommended.

Safety Tips:

- Always follow the suggested route. Do not enter private property, hunting areas, water galleries, wells or caves.
- Take extra care when walking along or crossing roads used by cyclists, horses or motor vehicles, as well as when walking through ravines with flowing water.
- Avoid direct contact with potentially dangerous animals, such as livestock, beehives or dogs.
- Walk carefully to avoid accidents and falls caused by obstacles, loose rocks, uneven ground or steep slopes.
- Check the weather forecast before planning your route.
- In case of emergency, call 112.
