Description

Starting from Plaza de la Pila, in the heart of Icod de los Vinos' historic centre, this route descends towards the coast, passing some of the town's most representative landmarks, such as the Chapel of Nuestra Señora del Tránsito and the historic estates of Alzola and Las Cañas. The route continues along traditional paths and through banana plantations, combining heritage, scenery and nature, before reaching the coast, where you can enjoy magnificent views of San Marcos Bay.

The return section can also be completed on foot or by bus/or taxi from El Guincho.

Equipment:

- Use appropriate equipment, footwear and clothing according to the route and weather conditions. For routes with greater difficulty or steep slopes, trekking poles are recommended.

Safety Tips:

- Always follow the suggested route. Do not enter private property, hunting areas, water galleries, wells or caves.
- Take extra care when walking along or crossing roads used by cyclists, horses or motor vehicles, as well as when walking through ravines with flowing water.
- Avoid direct contact with potentially dangerous animals, such as livestock, beehives or dogs.
- Walk carefully to avoid accidents and falls caused by obstacles, loose rocks, uneven ground or steep slopes.
- Check the weather forecast before planning your route.
- In case of emergency, call 112.
