Description

SANTA BÁRBARA

The route begins at Santa Bárbara Church, located in a neighbourhood known for its traditional Cestos y Bollos celebration. From here, we begin our ascent along the main road, heading into the mid-altitude countryside through a rural landscape of small cultivated plots and vineyards, reflecting the area's agricultural heritage.

Along the way, we come across Lagar de Castro, a traditional wine press associated with the former estate of the same name, where the historic Casa de Castro is also located. Together, these buildings offer a glimpse into the agricultural and winemaking past of Icod de los Vinos and a way of life closely connected to the land.

We continue our route, descending towards the neighbourhood of Hoya Ana Díaz, before returning to our starting point. Along the way, we enjoy spectacular views of the Corona Forestal, with Mount Teide rising in the background.
